Reviewer A:

Title

Title reflects the essence of the content of the article (content, method, novelty)

1. One of the purposes of Islamic law is for the benefit of mankind. Non-Binary is one of the legal realities that exist in the world community including in Indonesia. This shows that Islamic law pays attention to human values. Although it has also been affirmed that non-Binary is clearly contrary to Islamic Law, humanitarian considerations must also be observed. This article is in accordance with the focus of the journal samarah, especially Islamic Law.
2. The title may still be revised by shortening or mentioning the approach or theory used.

Abstract

Abstract contains problem of research, method, and result

This abstract, there are still too few words to add between 250-300 words. Especially on the findings of research results.

Originality

The originality of the subject matter, and the manuscript would be of interest to the the scholar of Islamic countries in general and specifically in Indonesia

Such themes are as interesting as the themes of environment, poverty, education associated with Islamic law or Islamic family law. Therefore, this article will attract researchers or readers in the Islamic world, as well as in the international world.

The Depth of Literature

Whether the article draws on an appropriate range and depth of literature (if not please indicate which sources of literature should be included by the author in future)

The references are still relatively lacking, especially in journal articles, please add journal articles, especially those related to discussions published in the last 4 years.

Finding Presentation

Whether the findings presented are subjected to suitable analysis and sound conclusions drawn

The conclusions of this study provide a broad perspective on the position of non-binary in law. because the approach used is not only Islamic law but also other legal approaches such as legal politics and even human rights.

Implications for understanding the study of Islamic family law and Islamic law in Islamic in Islamic countries in general and specifically in Indonesia

The conclusions and arguments of this article support and strengthen the main goal of Islamic law, namely treating humans with dignity and justice. Even though non-Binaries have no place in Islamic law, a Muslim is also not permitted to discriminate against them. This study will contribute to the support of humanist and just Islamic law.

Technical writing

Articles must be in accordance with the surrounding style and journal template

It's OK

Title

The theme of the study of Non-Binary or Khunsa in Islamic Law is interesting and unique. The focus and substance of this paper are in line with the journal Samarah, especially Islamic law. On the one hand Islamic law rejects the existence of Non-Binary Gender or Khunsa, but in the context of respect and human rights, Non-Binary people must be treated humanely and fairly and with dignity.

Abstract

Abstract contains problem of research, method, and result

The methods and theories in this study have not been confirmed in this article. Theories that can be used may be Islamic law, gender or political law (siyasah syar'iyah).

Originality

The originality of the subject matter, and the manuscript would be of interest to the the scholar of Islamic countries in general and specifically in Indonesia

Scholars in Indonesia and in the Muslim world will be interested in this study of Non-Binary (khunsa) in Islamic law. This study contains authenticity, because the substance and theme are relatively under-researched and written by scholars.

The Depth of Literature

Whether the article draws on an appropriate range and depth of literature (if not please indicate which sources of literature should be included by the author in future)

References to this article are still lacking, please add: 1. Warda Silwana Hikmah, et.al., "Bisexual Orientation, Divorce, and Islamic Law in Indonesia: Legal Standing and Arguments (Ahkam journal, 2022), 2. Ita Fitriana, "Dualism of Positive Law and Islamic Law in Indonesia: Law Enforcement for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Communities," Urecol Journal Part H Social Art and Humanities 1, No. 2 (2021). 3. Agung Wijianto and Farah Kholida Wahid, "Negotiating Islamic Hegemony: A Case Study of Muslim LGBT in East Java, Indonesia," Humanities 13(2) (2022).

Finding Presentation

Whether the findings presented are subjected to suitable analysis and sound conclusions drawn

Results or findings presented with appropriate analysis and conclusions drawn demonstrate scientific logic. The findings of this article provide a strong argument, namely that Non-Binaries or khunsa are contrary to Islamic law, although they must still be treated fairly and with dignity.

Implications for understanding the study of Islamic family law and Islamic law in Islamic in Islamic countries in general and specifically in Indonesia

This study will have implications for a moderate view of Islamic law and respect for human rights. Although Non-Binary gender/Khunsa gives no place and is not known in Islamic Law, they are still respected and treated with dignity, not bullied. Therefore, once again, that Islamic law is an instrument for respecting human beings. Therefore, this article will also attract scholars in the Muslim world, especially in Indonesia.

Technical writing

Articles must be in accordance with the surrounding style and journal template

The article writing technique is good, although it still needs improvement, namely;

1. introduction, at the end there is no mention of the methods and theories used.
2. The quoting technique should use photonotes.
3. Interviews with relevant informants should be added according to the research focus.

Additional comment for the author:

This article manuscript fits the focus of the Samarah journal, before publication it will be revised
